

eBlast from the Hunter Mill District

Highlights from the Board of Supervisors Meeting

February 2, 2016

The following are highlights from the Board of Supervisors meeting held on February 2, 2016. Items below cover Hunter Mill District programs, actions, and residents, plus items impacting all of Fairfax County. For additional details, please go to the County's Board Agenda and Meeting Schedule section on the County's webpage. You may listen to highlights from the Board meeting on your computer or listen directly on iTunes. You can subscribe to the podcast, or choose a program and listen in.

PRESENTATIONS

The Board received a report on the General Assembly activities: approved a letter to Fairfax County General Assembly delegation members to oppose HB 770 and SB 549 or seek amendments to shield Fairfax County from the significant restrictions these bills would place on development and proffers.

ACTION ITEMS

Action 1: The Board approved a revision to the policy regarding sewage disposal that establishes a process by which a property owner who extends a sewer line at his own cost can receive partial reimbursement of those costs.

BOARD MATTERS

The Board approved naming the Fairfax County Animal Shelter for former Sully District Supervisor Michael Frey.

PUBLIC HEARINGS

The Board held a public hearing and approved a Special Exception application to permit the development of an assisted living facility to be located at 10819 Leesburg Pike, Reston.

The Board held a public hearing and approved a Special Exception for Metropolitan Washington Airports Authority (MWAA) and the Virginia Department of Rail and Public Transportation to construct an electrically powered regional substation at the north entrance to the Reston Town Center Station. In addition, the build-out will include the station entrance pavilion/pedestrian bridge which will be owned and operated by WMATA.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

PROGRAM CHANGE: Black History in Hunter Mill – on this month's "Connecting with Supervisor Hudgins" on the County's cable Channel 16. Local historians Sylvia Taylor and Jim Lewis share stories of the contributions of African American residents of the Hunter Mill District. Click here for showtimes and links for viewing on demand.

Don't Miss it! Hunter Mill District Community Summit - Saturday, February 20th

To be held at the Vienna Fire Station, 120 Center Street South, Vienna, from 8:30 a.m. to 1 p.m. Supervisor Hudgins will host presentations and discussions focused on the FY2017 County Budget, school budget, and funding gap. Visit the Hunter Mill District website for details and registration. Click here for event flyer.

Recycle Your Unwanted Laptops and Tablets: Homeless Youth Computer Program. Help American's Adopt A Soldier program reach their goal of collecting 500 donated working computer laptops/pads/tablets for homeless youth in Fairfax County. You can drop off your donation to the Hunter Mill District Supervisor's Office at 1801 Cameron Glen Drive, Reston, through February 29, 2016. For additional information, call 703-278-3718.

Pancake Time? Maple Syrup Making at Colvin Run Mill: February 7, 21, and March 6, noon to 2 p.m. Simple and sweet. That's the technique and the goal of the annual maple syrup boil at Colvin Run Mill. The trees are tapped and it's time to turn sap into syrup. Just drop by, no reservations required. Colvin Run Mill Historic Site is located at 10017 Colvin Run Road, Great Falls.

Dr. Garza's Listening Tour Visits Madison HS: Tuesday, February 9, 6:30 p.m. Fairfax County Public Schools Superintendent Karen Garza will be at James Madison High School as part of her 2016 Listening Tour community meetings. Accompanied by the regional superintendents, Dr. Garza will provide an update on various issues and field your questions. Additional information and registration is available at <http://www.fcps.edu/news/listening.shtml>.

STUFF THE BUS: Saturday, February 15 at Dulles Shoppers at Village Center, 2425 Centreville Road, Herndon. Your donations are needed to restock local food pantries that help those in need. Saturday's donations will benefit St Anne' Episcopal food pantry and Cornerstones.

*****

To unsubscribe from this publication or to change your e-mail address, please contact the Hunter Mill office at huntermill@fairfaxcounty.gov